The Fortress

AS LI — SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2016 BARONY OF CAERTHE

Caerthe Proud, Caerthe Strong

Congratulations to the new Crown Prince and Crown Princess of the Outlands, Sir Robert Magnus and Baroness Magge Magnus!

Their Royal Highnesses were Baron and Baroness of Caerthe from April 2010 until August 2013, and currently reside within the Canton of Ravenhyrst. Their Coronation will be held in the Shire of Drygestan, sponsored by the Barony of al-Barran, on November 5-6, 2016.

His Royal Highness is a Knight of the Society and a Pelican; Her Royal Highness will be sitting vigil at Battlemoor for the Order of the Pelican. Crown Prince Robert is twice bearer of the Sable Lion, and bears the Aspen and the Dreamers' Cup; Crown Princess Magge bears the Aspen.

From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings All,

Battlemoor!!! Yep, by the time most of you read this, We will already be at Battlemoor getting the site ready to go for the premier event of the Kingdom of the Outlands. Let me tell you, His Excellency couldn't be happier to see this day finally come. All in all, the event planning has gone fairly smoothly and this year's event really does look like it is shaping up to be fairly spectacular. Or perhaps we are just a slight bit biased….

Speaking of being biased, did you happen to catch the results of the Crown Tournament? We couldn't have been happier to see all of the joyous excited faces at Crown and so many of them from Caerthe too. The final round was SO dramatic; I think it had everyone on the edge of their seats. Except, by the end I'm not sure anyone was still seated. We were all crowded round the fighting field to see the finals. Sir Robert Magnus struck the final blow, Duke Bela fell to the ground in dramatic fashion, and the match had been decided. Within minutes of the end of the tournament, both the Premier Blade and the Blade of Chivalry had asked permission to fight for the honor to become Princess Protector for HRH Magge. That was perhaps one of my proudest moments as Baroness so far.

I want to remind everyone that Queen's Prize will be held October 12th at the Grace Covenant Church in Lakewood. If you would like to sponsor someone or better yet, enter Queen's Prize yourself, please contact the event coordinators. 12th Night will be run by Her Honor Celestina on January 2nd. Oh...which reminds me: We've had a number of requests lately asking when events are being planned. Please make sure you contact our Baronial webminister so she can get the links and current information out onto our Baronial website as well as the Kingdom calendar. As always was ask that any communications sent out about events or general information be cross-posted on the Yahoo groups lists. There are still a significant number of people in the Barony who do not have access to Facebook for one reason or another. If you do not have access to those lists, contact our Social Media Officer and ask him to cross-post for you (yep...it's really that simple). It only takes an extra second or two to go that extra step and include everyone in your message. We want to make it easy for folks to find information about all of our events and activities.

Now that I have taken up far more of my allotted space for an article, I will bid you all adieu until the next edition of The Fortress. As always, it is Our pleasure and privilege to serve you all and if there is anything you would like from Us, do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you,

Dianna Baroness & Alasdair Baron

Let it be known that Her Majesty hereby calls all artisans to show the fruits of their study!

Queen's Prize Tournament is a mentoring and learning opportunity for artisans of the Outlands. It allows anyone with an AoA-bearing arts and/or sciences award or lower to engage in friendly competition with positive feedback from sponsors and the populace alike. The focus of Queen's Prize is not on scores, but rather on mentoring and networking to aid artisans in further developing their skills.

Entrants must be sponsored by a Flower (or GoA-equivalent arts and/or sciences award), Laurel, or Lady of the Rose. The artisan and sponsor pre-registration form can be found online here:
http://prototype.outlands.org/queen-s-prize-tournament

Aspen Pursuivant
